News from Admin

If you haven't already, please send in consent for flu vaccinations. Forms are being collected by the NHS next week

A data collection sheet is being sent home in the next few days. If there are any changes to the information please write on the form, sign and return to us. If there are no changes to be made please sign the form and return to us.

Look out for a date for the hairdresser– she will be booked to come into school in October

NEWS

We were sorry to have to cancel our Friends meeting at the last moment this week as we were expecting low numbers. This meeting is now rescheduled for 17th October. Let us know if you intend to come– we are looking for help to organise fundraising activities.

We were excited to hear that Taverners are donating £25,000 to our outdoor appeal this week– only another £65,000 to find for our exciting plan to be realised!

Please join us on Thursday for our Macmillan Coffee event– this is always a nice social occasion. If you are able to bring cakes they would be appreciated.
