Assembly helper was Jaiya

Attendance

Well done to children in Hedgehogs class who have achieved 100% attendance this week– excellent!

Cook's Corner

The school kitchen will be serving from the Week 1 next week menu

Reminders

We will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 8th March. All children and staff are invited to come to school dressed as their favourite story character. On that day lessons will be centred around stories. This is always a fun day in school, we look forward to seeing a spectacular range of outfits on the day!

School closes today for a week and will re-open on Monday 25th February. We hope you all have a lovely break with your children.

We were visited by a new local organisation called the Sikh Toy appeal this week. They are trying to gain charity status for the work that they do in providing toys and equipment to groups in vulnerable situations. They are hoping to gather donations to provide new resources for our classrooms.

News

We have a number of trainee teachers in school currently; this is a really important part of our work to support and encourage new people into our profession. You may meet some on our up and coming Parents Evening as they need to learn all aspects of our work.

As a teaching school we are also involved with both Birmingham City University and University of Wolverhampton in our own post graduate course which leads to teaching. If you or anyone you know is interested in teaching as a career– either mainstream or special, please let us know.

We have been observing lots of lovely work in school this week– children have shown some fantastic responses in Fun with Food!
