NEWS

We have a vacancy for a parent Governor and an official paper will be sent out explaining the role and responsibilities. If this is something that interests you please make yourself known. Being a Governor is a very important and interesting job, we do try to support parents in this role as much as possible- it does need some time and commitment however.

Our Friends committee are getting busy preparing for the Christmas Fayre– please get involved if you are able and bring along family or friends. The Friday craft mornings are a good way of meeting other parents and joining in, they are very relaxed and good fun, and no special skills are needed- we would love to see you.

App of the week
