Everyone in school is well and working hard to stay safe and serve our families and children—whether that is in school or at home. Life is very different in school as we have lots of rules and procedures in place to keep staff and children safe from the virus.

Class of 2020

For children who are due to leave us in July, plans are now coming together with next schools to work out how transition can work. If not already, in the next week or so you can expect to hear more about this for your child.
