News

It is with a heavy heart that we say goodbye to our leavers today. We are very sad that we are unable to hold our usual farewell events and that actually we haven't seen some children for some months.

Goodbye and good luck to Leo B, Simon, De'Anjillo, Mina, Kayden, Dean, Evie, Yathav, Theo, Rajveer, Yad and Osinachi. We wish you all the very best in your new schools. We are sure you will be amazing– don't forget to come back and visit when you have an INSET day!

We also say goodbye this week to Diane Purchase one of our teaching assistants. Diane has worked at various nurseries around the City and finally Broadmeadow where she was our outdoor learning expert and also the staff governor. Diane was instrumental in our Forest School developments and will be missed very much. We all wish our Miss Diane a long and happy retirement.

If you are looking for lots of ideas of fun, active, crafty and educational things to do and local places to go as a family this summer holidays please take a look at Raring2go! Wolverhampton & South Staffordshire magazine by using this link: <https://magazines.raring2go.co.uk/wolverhampton/summer/>

Have a lovely summer break everyone– remember to keep safe.
