Friends of Broadmeadow News

This term we enjoyed the Wulfruna Chapter Bikers visiting us. Many children enjoyed sitting on and exploring the Harley Davidson Machines. They very kindly brought with them an Easter egg for every child.

Friends of Broadmeadow have awarded gift aid funds to school totalling £2.950.

This will be spent on various items including outdoor playground activities, cooking resources, lego sets used for lego therapy, anatomically correct dolls, oral motor resources, finger fitness resources and a Nintendo Switch.

Our Yr 6 children enjoyed taking part in their sponsored 'dance off' to raise money for their leavers school prom. Thank you to families and friends for sponsoring your child. This raised sufficient funds for all children to enjoy a great Prom! Friends of Broadmeadow are also donating money to purchase decorations for the day.

As a whole school we enjoyed a penalty shoot out with Wolfie and staff from the Wolves Foundation. The money raised from this is going towards a treat for the children. Once again thank you for all your support.

Friends of Broadmeadow also funded a touring theatre group who specialise in interactive and multisensory story telling in inclusive ways. The show-The Nosi dinosaur-was enjoyed by everyone!
